THE WILMINGTON POST is opposed to a poll tax except for educational purposes.

THE WILMINGTON POST is the organ of the laboring men, and will always stand up for their rights.

THE WILMINGTON POST is in favor of State Banks like those which existed in North Carolina before the rebellion.

THE WILMINGTON POST is in favor of the wealth of the country supporting the government by paying the taxes.

THE WILMINGTON POST is the organ of the true Greenback party, and will always stand up for the honor of the greenbacks and all other obligations of the United States Government

THE WILMINGTON POST is in favor of repealing the tax on State Banks, so that we can have private corporated banks in every city and town in the state. Then we will have prosperity in the land.

THE WILMINGTON POST is in favor of the wealth of the country supporting the government, and paying its debts by paying the taxes. It is opposed to the laboring men paying exorbitant poll taxes for the purpose of relieving wealthy property owners. No poll tax should be levied except for educational purposes.

The platform of the Wilmington Post, as published above, is the proper one for every working man in the district. We have received a great many letters endorsing it, from the laboring men.

Many of the Southern papers reflect the views of the Inter Ocean as to the indifference and inactivity of wealthy men in the South while yellow fever is at their doors and cutting down their neighbors. Starting out with the statement that there are many rich men in Memphis, and that none of them have been conspicuous in contributions to save the people from starvation and disease, the Avalanche, of that city, says;

"We who are here to-day do not feel like mincing phrases or glossing over facts. But we do mean to say, in plain English, that Memphis has one other curse than the plague, and that curse is her rich men. For mean, selfish penuriousness, we think the rich men of Memphis can beat the world, ancient or modern; and there is not a man standing here to-day, fighting the greatest plague in all history, that will not indorse this sentiment." This comes from the bitterness of the heart, of men in the midst of the trouble, who, in the face of the demonstrative generosity of Northern cities, see, in strong light, the coolness and indifference of men at home who should be first in the list of helpers and givers.

The Origin of Sexes

Aristophanes, the funny man of classic Greece, gives the following myth: Once upon a time man had three sexes and a double nature; besides this he was perfectly round, and had four hands and four feet, one head with two faces looking opposite ways, set on a single neck. When these creatures pleased, they could walk as we do now, but if they wanted to go faster they would roll over with all their four legs in the air, like a tumbler turning somersaults; and their pride and strength were such that they made war upon the gods. Jupiter resented their insolence, but hardly liked to kill them with thunderbolts, as the gods would then lose their sacrifices. At last he hit upon a plan. "I will cut them in two," he said, "so that they will walk on two legs instead of four. They will then be only half as insolent, but twice as numerous, and we shall get twice as many sacrifices." This was done, and the two halves are continually going about looking for one another. If we mortals (says Aristophanes, with a comic air of apprehension,) are not obedient to the gods, there is danger that we shall be split up again, and shall have to go about in basso-relievo, like those figures with only half a nose, which you may see sculptured on our columns.

Canadian Burglars.

DUNDAS, ON., September 9th.—At 2 o'clock this morning three masked men entered the Great Western railroad station and gagged the watchman and blew open the safe, which contained about one hundred dollars and checks for small amounts. The burglars escaped.

This morning the outward bound freight train of the Carolina Central Railway Company met with quite a serious accident to the company by running through the open draw of the bridge at Meares' Bluff. The engine and four box cars were precipitated into the river, but no lives lost nor any one hurt. We learn that the matter will be investigated.

The members of the Chestnut Street Presbyterian Church, Rev. D. J Saunders, pastor, forwarded $15 to the pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church at Memphis to be applied in aid of the sufferers. A like amount was also raised by the N. C. Baptist Sunday School Convention, which has been in session here during the past week.

The compresses of this city will start up, on or about the 1st of October Last season the city only had one, which had a capacity of 1,200 bales per day; now there are three, with a capacity of 3,600. No ship need wait after it obtains the cotton for her cargo, all can be loaded in a very few days. This very great facility, added to our commercial interest in hauling cotton, will add very much to the interest of the city, and in a very few months our merchants may look for lively times in trade, and hundreds of additional laborers will be employed also. Good times coming.

A colored individual by the name of Monroe Hawkins had a hearing before Justice Scott on Monday last, on the charge of stealing a sum of money, ($4 50) from another colored man on Saturday night last, by picking his pockets while he was asleep. The evidence was so conclusive as to his guilt that the defendant was ordered to give a justified bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was sent to jail. The man that was robbed hailed from Fayetteville, and was to have gone up on Saturday's boat, but was left.

Benj. F. Person, colored, had a hearing before Justice Scott on Wednesday last, on the charge of obtaining goods under false pretenses, he having presented an order on one of the railroad companies to Mr. J. W. Moody, and obtained goods thereon, when it was subsequently ascertained that he had already drawn the amount which the order called for. He was arrested by Special Deputy C. H. Strode, soon after he had disposed of the bogus order. Defendant was ordered to give bond for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

The Steamboat Isis intended as we learn to run as a freight and passenger boat on the Cape Fear river, arrived yesterday afternoon.

There is at this time one of the largest commercial fleets in this port that has ever been here. Our shipping is greatly on the increase, which is very incouraging to our business men. The shipment of Cotton from here this fall and winter will be very likely to double any former season, and imports will consequently be very much in our favor, owing to cheap freight, vessels had rather come with cargoes than in ballast, therefore, merchants can get salt, molasses, &c., so as to compete with Northern merchants. Now is the time for the business men of this city to be making their arrangements to sell goods to the Western consumer. Will they take advantage of this splendid opportunity? We believe they will. If they do, they certainly can control the trade West of us.

The Custom House officers are all busy looking after the unloading of the vessels now in port. By the way, can't our members of Congress get our city an appropriation to erect a building to be used as a Post Office, Custom House and United States Court House. The buildings now used are a great way apart. We ought to have one large building for all the United States officials. Raleigh has its $600,000, and if the Raleigh cross-roads can have such a handsome structure, it does seem as if our members of Congress could get a small appropriation for the purpose of erecting a United States building in the large commercial city of Wilmington, which pays more taxes than any other eight cities and towns in the State. What say you, Messrs. Congressmen?

At a session of the Board of County Commissioners, held on Monday last, the Board proceeded to draw the regular venire of jurors for the October term of the Criminal Court, as follows: J. H. Southerland, Samuel Northrop, Louis LeGrand, George D. Watters, Fred. Jones, N. H. Sprunt, Nathaniel Jacobi, Robert E. Lee, John R. Melton, Jacob Loeb, David Jenkins, H. A. Glaymyer, Isaac L. Greenwald, Alexander Mallett, Ephraim Bishop, Chas. Murphy, Samuel Farrow, James Allen, R. W. Chadwick, Halifax Leonard, Sr., Elias Halsey, Rob't D. D. Davis, Jno. C. Borneman, R. B. Wood, Jr., David Pigott, James H. Lane, Samuel Reed, John H. Strauss, Harding Johnson, Alfred Alderman.

It was ordered that a joint meeting of the Justices of the Peace and the Board of County Commissioners be called for Saturday, the 21st inst., at 11 o'clock a. m.

On motion the Board then adjourned.

With the view of affording a public convenience and of promoting the efficiency of the postal service, the Postmaster General has ordered that the registry system be extended to mail matter of the third class, to take effect on the first of October ensuing, the registry fee to be fixed at the uniform rate of ten cents for each package, additional to the postage now required by law. We learn from a circular sent us by Postmaster Brink, of this city, that postmasters are to require packages to be put up securely, so as to safely bear transportation, but not in such a manner as to prevent an examination of their contents, either at the mailing office or the office of delivery. Matter offered for registration in violation of these requirements will be treated as now provided by law and the postal regulations. Both postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid with postage stamps affixed to the packages, and the name and address of the sender must be endorsed, either in writing or in print, upon each package; and there may be added to this a brief description, in writing or print, of the number and names of the articles enclosed. No additional written matter, except the address, is permitted by law. A request to return may also be printed, but to write such request would by law subject the package to postage at first class (letter) rates. Unclaimed registered packages will be treated the same as unclaimed registered letters.

Short Sermon Apples

Hartford Courant: What shall we do with the apple crop? Eat it. There are not as many apples in the State as our horses really need in small quantities for relish and medicine. Our people are worse off. The superfluously healthy only think of apples as refreshments, between meals. Our half-sick people should throw away pills and powders and eat apples, cooked, as a regular feed with their bread and meat, sweating the water of the fruit through their ribs by light labor. Sweet apples are the cheapest and freshest form of sugar in the market, and just the inside lining for a laboring man.

THE REPUBLICAN DISTRICT COMMITTEE OF THE THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

This committee met on the 18th inst., as announced in a call issued by Col. O. H. Blocker, the chairman, some weeks since.

There was a full representation, and the action of the committee was harmonious and enthusiastic.

It was deemed inexpedient to call a convention for the purpose of making a partisan nomination, and none was called.

The members of the committee recommended all Republicans to vote for Hon. W. P. Canaday in November next and unitedly endeavor to secure his election, believing that no fairer man or stronger candidate could be presented for the suffrages of the people of this District, or one who would better represent their wants and views in the next Congress.

We will publish officially the resolutions passed and the full proceedings of the meeting in our next issue.

We regret to state that Dr. Adam E. Wright, Superintendent of Health, while seated at his desk in his office on Monday last, about noon, was suddenly striken with paralysis. He was removed to a room adjoining the office, and Drs. Walker and Lane called in, when it was found that his entire right side was more or less affected, and he was unable to articulate with sufficient distinctness to be understood, except occasionally a word. He retained his consciousness, however, sufficiently to recognize such of his friends as called to see him, and to understand any remarks made to him. He was removed to his residence on Thursday and on yesterday, we are pleased to learn, was somewhat better.

Dr. Wright returned only a few days since from a visit to Ashville and other points in the Western part of the State, and was apparently in better physical condition than we had seen him in a long time.

If Gorham had made that "speech" three weeks ago, instead of Sunday, things might have been different.—Daily Coprophagons.

Mr. Gorman's "speech" referred to here was delivered at Newark, N. J., last week before the Republican convention which nominated Cortlandt Parker for Congress. The audience numbered several thousand people, all of whom were unanimous in the declaration that the speaker fully and convincingly exposed the rottenness of the Democratic pretention to friendship for the greenbacks. One of the most telling points was an arraignment of Senator Wallace for his duplicity in proposing to substitute irredeemable non-legal tenders for national bank currency. Another was his defense of the Republican party by showing from the records that it has never pronounced for contraction, and at the same time has never advocated wild and unreasonable expansion. Expansion, he said, is a "tramp" contraction, a "pickpocket." In short, it was a great speech; a bold and dignified effort—one that will be heard from again and again before the campaign is over. Gore 'em some more, Mr. Secretary! We like to hear them roar.

The Republican party is the author of the greenback system. It is proud of its work, but it is jealous of the attempts of the Democracy to appropriate it, because it knows that the integrity of the system can only be preserved by the friends of good government.

This appeared in the Washington Republican, the recognized mouthpiece of the Republican party. If this means that the Republican party is better prepared to run the greenback business than the Caryites or the Kearneyites, although these ites and others ites, including the Thurmanites and all the modern Democratic Hittites, are combined in opposition to it. Now, let the recognized local tail piece of the Baltimore ping-ugly and dead-rabbit Democracy resume its suspended breath. No wonder it paused—it came so near telling the truth, you know.

Another Preventative

The Vicksburg Herald says: "Many of our oldest citizens think pulverized charcoal is almost a sure preventative of yellow fever. They point to the fact that many families in this city used it during every visitation of the yellow fever, and that not one of them had the disease. The proper way to use it is mixed with a little sugar and water, a tablespoonful at a dose, once or twice a day before meals. It can be had of any druggist. Others have great confidence in turpentine. They say it is the best disinfectant of rooms now known, and that Bronze John refuses to call when turpentine is kept constantly open in small vessels in every room. A little pounded on a saucer and kept in every room in the dwelling is sufficient."

The pencil with which Britannia ruled the wave.

Rockers from the cradle of liberty.

The Democratic campaign committee having had the bulk of its campaign printing done by "rats" or "pauper labor," now turns about with transparently demagogical professions of regard for the respectable laboring classes and directs its Washington organ to employ Union printers. This latter day or eleventh hour pretention of repentance will fail of its object. The country, and the laboring masses especially, have been duly informed of the iniquitous and aristocratic impositions of this committee.

THE WILMINGTON POST.

W. P. CANADAY,

Editor and Proprietor.

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1878.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

The Republican party in the country was never stronger with the people than it is to-day. Its opportunities are as great as at any time since the war of the rebellion; and, in our opinion, if the leaders and managers of the party will but take hold of the great political questions now exciting the people and properly explain the policy of the Republican party concerning them, the people will again show their confidence in the integrity of that party by electing its candidates to office.

The Republican party is the true Greenback party of the country. The greenbacks were first issued by the overwhelming majority of a Republican Congress during the late war. The Democratic members fought the act authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to issue greenbacks, and from that day until 1876 its leaders were bitterly opposed to the national greenbacks. But they have tried everything else to get in power once more; and now they think, or a part of them think, to steal the Republican greenback policy. In other words, they are anxious for power, and it makes no kind of difference to them how it is obtained, whether on a Greeley horse, a Butler mule, or a Greenback machine. They care nothing for the dear people's interest any longer than they are candidates for public power. As soon as successful they throw aside their disguise, and become the masters instead of the servants.

The Labor, or National party, believe that one man should have as much voice in running the government as another; the poor as well as the rich, the mechanic as well as the aristocrat, the farmer as well as the banker, the drayman as well as the bloated bondholder. So does the Republican party. The Republican party is made up of the laboring men of the United States. It has always been known as the party of mechanics and farmers; therefore, it is no use for any one to join any other party as long as the great National Republican Greenback party is in existence; for its platform is broad and liberal enough for all. Its protecting arm will defend the poor hard-working mechanic in his rights as well as the creditors of the government in their heirs. The widows and orphans must be paid the interest on their bonds, and the mechanic must be paid liberal wages; the farmer must have good prices for his produce; all of which will be, if the Republican party is successful.

The Republicans have always studied the interest of the people, and at all times have consulted them directly, and carried out to the very letter the wishes of the majority; and they will continue to do so. They believe truly that the government should be run for the interest of the whole people as "it is of the people." They took hold of the government at a time when eleven of the States were in open rebellion. It took millions of money to put it down, for which the Democratic party is solely responsible. The debt was caused by their trying to destroy the government; the high taxes was the consequence. They now, in the very agony of despair, are crying high taxes and hard times. It requires a remarkable amount of cheek in them to do it; but then take the cheek away and there would be no Democratic party left; they believe the people are easily fooled, and act accordingly. But the mechanics, farmers and workers of the United States are made up of our most intelligent citizens, and whoever tries to prey upon their ignorance for success will in the end be badly fooled.

The poison so freely used by the Italians in the seventeenth century was called "aqua tofana," from the name of the old woman Tofania, who made and sold it in small flat vials which she called manna of St. Nicholas, on one side of which was an image of the saint. She carried on this traffic for half a century and eluded the police, but on being detected confessed that she had been a party in poisoning 600 people. Numerous persons were implicated by her of all rank, and many of them were publicly executed. All Italy was thrown into a ferment, and many fled, while persons of distinction, on conviction, were strangled in prison. It appeared to have been used mainly by married women who were tired of their husbands. Four or six drops were a fatal dose, but the effect was not sudden and therefore not suspected.—It was as clear as water, but the chemists have not agreed about its real composition. A proclamation of the Pope described it as aquafortis distilled into arsenic, and others considered it as a solution of crystallized arsenic. The secret of its preparation was conveyed to Paris, where the Marchioness de Brinvalliers poisoned her father and two brothers, and she, with many others, were executed, and the preparers of it were burned at the stake.

The more old rye a man gets down the more he insists he is "all right."

The Labor Question and the Future.

The people of this country should require no urging to give the labor question, in all its phases and bearings, most thoughtful and careful consideration. The nation, it may be said, was hewn out of the chaos of a wilderness by men who were laborers in every sense in which the term can be used, and that they should dignify labor and give much attention to the condition of the laborer was a natural consequence of the conditions under which they established the government. The spirit which animated the founders of the government has been potent in the councils of the nation ever since. Every attempt to degrade labor or to surround the laborer with vicious influences has been resisted and defeated. The question of the rights of the people has always stood first in the list of great questions, claiming the best thought in this country, and it cannot now be relegated to the second place.

There is no reason why the pressing of certain claims by the working man should cause irritation or breed a spirit of contempt and defiance on the part of any political organization. The claims should be considered and discussed with the old spirit of fairness, and no attempt made to whistle them down as unimportant and unworthy of serious thought. The labor question is one over which the fathers of the Republic puzzled, and it stands to-day as the most complicated question before the people.

In our eagerness to accomplish great results, and in our enthusiasm over rapid progress, we have unconsciously invited many of the complications that now present a threatening aspect, and, in our hasty doing of much good, have sown the seeds of evils now ripening before us. The Republican party, as the organization reflecting the popular sentiment of the country, must meet all the issues growin out of this state of affairs fairly and frankly, or see them made more dangerous by the schemes of shallow demagogues. The questions brought forward in the name of the workingmen are not dangerous, only as they may offer opportunities for the very worst class of politicians to take advantage of the dissatisfied state of feeling and ride into power. Ignored by one political organization, it is natural that men, failing to find a friendly spirit where they have a right to expect it, should turn, and, in a spirit of revenge, form an alliance with available elements, although such an alliance may promise no more than action with the old party. This is human nature, and the shrewd political manager will always take due cognizance of the fact that the weakness of human nature give impulse to many erratic political movements.

Such an alliance as that referred to, while it fails to advance the interests of the men seeking to influence public opinion, and while it results injuriously, if not disastrously, to the party in power, benefits only the shallow demagogue, who is the representative of no principle, and who casts discredit on the cause he pretends to represent. In the end, the result is not all in accordance with the spirit of the impulse that inspired the experiment, and, so far as any progress toward real reform is concerned, the movement had better never been made.

This is the philosophy of rash experiments in politics, and for the unsatisfactory results two parties are to blame. First, the older organization, that will not listen to claims presented; and, second, the men who, in their irritation, cease to be politic. Just now there is danger of imprudent and inconsiderate action on both sides. The old problems incident to the labor question have assumed new prominence before the people. They are difficult and vexatious problems, and, naturally, there is great difference of opinion as to methods to be pursued in solving them. On one side men are captious and opinionated, and, on the other, irritated and indiscreet. At such a time there should be no intemperate action, and no sneers at the sentiments held by a large class of earnest men. The general question goes above party, and must be looked at, not so much with the eyes of the politician interested in the success of his party, as with the eyes of the patriot loking forward to the future happiness and prosperity of the American people. And, looking at it this way, men must grapple with all the ugly features of the great question as they grappled with the slavery question. The issues cannot be dodged; they must be met and disposed of, and the people who were equal to the emergency in one case should be ready to act in the other.

As the fundamental principles on which the government is founded make the possibilities for the laboring man, in the way of advancement, as great as those of the millionaire, people must look with distrust on any movement that will tend to lower the character of the laborer, or in any way degrade labor. The Constitution, as amended, contemplates the existence of no laborer in this country who may not exercise the privileges of citizenship, and who may not aspire to the dignity and influence of high office. This gives direction to popular sentiment, and people are not to be censured when they protest against the encouragement of Chinese labor experiments in communities built up on the theory that labor is to be dignified and made to play its proper part in the progressive march of the nation. Most particularly is the encouragement of the alien labor element offensive to the public, when it is made as a threat against men who exercise the rights of citizens.

The Chinese have chosen to come to this country. They are entitled to fair treatment and protection, but in looking forward to the future they cannot be considered as holding the same relations to the labor question as those who are identified with the country. Their influence must be considered apart from the general labor question, which involves the well-being of men who are part and parcel of the nation. They will no doubt play their part, and in due time cease to be a cause of agitation. But the others and their interests are to remain for all time. What we plan for them now, or what they do for themselves now, is to have bearing on the welfare of the common people for ages to come. The problems are not to be solved in a day; the questions are not to be settled in hot blood; but new steps looking toward solution and settlement are to be taken, and the importance of making no mistake cannot be overrated.

The constitutional grumbler and the professional tramp are outlaws, when compared with the great body of workingmen, and the real grievances of the latter are not to be confounded with the bombastic communism of the former. The Republican party has always heard the poor man patiently, whether he was starving white or persecuted slave, and, in pursuance of its policy, it must hear him patiently now; and, while it may not be able to accomplish all that is desired, it can show its spirit by continuing to do for the workingmen of the country more than any other organization ever has done, or more than any other organization now in the field can do.

Tit for Tat.

All the time that the fierce contest was going on in Louisiana and Florida to reach the results of the Presidential election, in those states, Mr. Tilden, with a henchman in Oregon, who was no less than a New York State Senator, was working for a favorable result in the closely contested state of Oregon. The correspondence was carried on in a peculiar and unintelligible cypher. No one could tell what it all meant and the "gobble dispatches" became only the subject of mirthful comment. For sometime past the New York Tribune has been industriously digging up and comparing the mass of cypher telegrams and has been rewarded in its researches with a fund and variety of party information, such as Champollon found on a different line in ancient hieroglyphics, but which, in rottenness, can be compared with the excavations of a disused city sink.

The alleged bargainings and corruptions of the Republicans in Louisiana and Florida sink to insignificance compared with what was done by Kelly, the senatorial messenger and trusted ally sent to Oregon; by Pelton, the nephew; Patrick, the vicegerent, and by Mabble and Hewitt, the politica-complotters and bosom friends of the sage of Gramercy park in this and other party fields. Such resorts to unscrupulous means; such free and shameless use of the traditional barrel of money; such efforts at official bater, and such purchase of official results as are developed by these telegrams, make bare one of the most corrupt and shameless attempts to wrong the people out of the results won by fair and honest suffrage, which was ever perpetrated by any party in any country. So astounding and so infamous is the character of the work revealed, that several of the Democratic leaders, among them Mr. Hewitt, declared that if they were traced to them they would feel themselves disgraced for life. Day by day they have come nearer and nearer to them, and now they involve them all and go directly to Tilden himself.

When the Tribune first started on its voyage of discovery these men merely laughed; as the developments increased they pooh-poohed and wondered why a paper should waste so much time hunting up dead matter and immaterial issues, and why it did not rather address itself to the live work of the campaign. They begin at last to see the point, and for this purpose we refer to it now and in order to contrast results.

For many months the Potter committee has been industriously engaged in trying to fix similar conditions of facts upon the President and his friends. They had a Congressional backing to stand sponser for and support them; they had unlimited supplies of witnesses of both sexes, of every grade in society, of every shade of character and complexion and of all party affinities. They have devoted weeks to inquiry according to all rules of evidence. They searched diligently in New Orleans until driven out by the plague, under the bracing and inspiring breezes of the Atlantic coast, in the busy thoroughfares of New York city. Archives, records, telegrams, letters, newspapers, every source of information has been traced, and so far they have wholly failed to bring up a single fact to connect the President or any of his family or trusted personal friends, or any officials connected with him, with any unfair practices in reaching the executive seat.

On the other hand, a story of fraud, corruption and dishonor has been brought home to Tilden, his kinsmen and his intimate friends by the simple unfolding of the cypher dispatches. What elaborate machinery and the most unparalled exertions have failed to accomplish in one case has come to the surface in the other as naturally and easily as a drowned body comes to the surface of the water on the ninth day, and, like it, with all the offensive of putrescence and corruption. The people now can understand where the fraud and corruption existed, and why the cry of "stop thief" has been so vociferously shouted. It was from those who had attempted to rob the people of their suffrage rights, and the cry was simply to elude pursuit.

Some of the Republican papers are calling on the Potter committee to summon the authors of these long mysterious dispatches, and have them placed as witnesses on the stand. There is no use in this. Mr. Tilden, having failed in his fraudulent schemes, is only a private citizen, and neither the Republican party nor Congress have any issue to make with him. It will, however, be very different if the Bourbon Democracy carries out its desperate plan. If the present Congress calls an extra session on the 5th of March, as it has been suggested, and shall impeach and displace Hayes and install Tilden, then it will be different, and upon the testimony of these dispatches Tilden will become the party subject to impeachment himself, and the grounds will not be pretended and fabricated as in the case against the President, but will be genuine and real.

We do not anticipate the result, however. The developments of the cypher dispatches have cooled the ardor of those who so ardently favored this scheme in the desire to advance Tilden, and now there is none so poor as to do him reverence. His friends hang their heads in shame, and he has fallen, like Lucifer, never to rise again. In addition to this, it is pleasant to note, in the light of daily occurring events that the Democracy will not have the power in the next House to carry out their wild and revolutionary schemes, that the days of their brief ascendancy are numbered.

When the greenbacks were first created, they were freely denounced by the Democrats; they were called paper shams, filthy rags, irredeemable currency, a government imposition, and all that sort of thing. The issue of greenbacks was charged as an unconstitutional assumption of authority by the government. When Congress declared them legal tender, the Democratic lawyers of the United States said it was a farce; that no judge of any character or respectable talents in the United States would pronounce the act constitutional.

They went further, and said the judges appointed by Lincoln and Grant were venal wretches, put on the supreme bench of the United States, merely as judicial tools to decide in favor of the constitutionality of the act, and that the judges holding the contrary were wise and good. Within a brief period of time Thurman and Vorhees have bitterly denounced greenbacks, and favored contraction to get rid of them. But now the scales have fallen from the Democratic eyes; they hurrah for greenbacks, there's nothing like greenbacks. There can be only one honest reason for this, and that is that the Republican party has made good its pledge to make greenbacks the equal of gold. The difference between the two currencies to-day is practically nothing. The Republican party is proud of the work. The Democracy cannot help being so.

The Greasers always have claimed and still claim that the House of the Forty-third Congress did not "count Hayes in." It is known that when Acting Vice-President Ferry announced the result of the electoral count the Democratic side of the House was temporarily vacated by such leading extremists as Mr. Blackburn, who characterized the then pending proceedings as the crowning infamy of the age. These discontented members, discontented to the very verge of revolution, only returned to their seats to vote for the Mills resolution, declaring the election of Tilden and Hendricks. For this resolution it is claimed that a majority of the States were recorded. They propose now to either carry out the full intent of that resolution, or do the next thing to it, declare the office of President vacant by reason of "fraud" and install Tilden or the President pro tem. of the Senate; provided, of course, they retain the organization of the House and the President pro tem. is a Democrat. This is the present Mexicanization programme of the Greaser Democracy in a nut-shell.

A Washington correspondent is authority for the statement that the President has taken pains to disclaim the intention of working against Mr. Conkling, and to announce that he is determined to know nothing of factional contests in the party. Commenting on this, the New York Tribune says: "This is as it should be. The civil-service reform machine makes considerable racket when it is set in motion, and the Republicans of our State do not wish to be interrupted in the serious work of the campaign which is now opening." Actions, however, speak louder than words, and if President Hayes wants the people to believe that he is not working against Mr. Conkling, he should cease to select his friends from among those who would prefer the Senator's defeat to that of any Democrat in the country. The President will probably never be just to Mr. Conkling while Schurz and Evarts are his most trusted advisers.

A Democrat remarked to us the other day, that during the late canvass, no mention was made by stumpers of that party, in favor of reducing salaries of State officials, and said that the salary of Gov. Vance, as compared with what Brogden received, $5,000, owing to the reduced cost of living, was equal to $7,000 for Vance. This is so. And other state officials in proportion. In the same ratio, tax payers are less able to pay, hence the hard times with them, who are being ruined by pampered officials. Let the next Legislature take this matter in hand. We shall see, what we shall see.—Statesville American.

The man must be wilfully deaf who fails to hear the threats of the Democracy that President Hayes shall be "bounced" at the coming winter session of Congress. The feeble opposition of such anti-caucus men as Alexander H. Stephens to this bouncing process will then be no longer restrained by a fear of damaging party prospects in any coming election. The elections over, the fire-eaters of the Blackburn kidney will carry things with a high hand, and the weak-kneed conservatives will be forced to take a back seat.

Vaccinating Dogs.—An Operation to Prevent Distemper and Keep Curs in Running Order.

To vaccinate dogs is something that Mr. Senn, a fancier, offers to do. The process, Mr. Senn says, is new only in this country, where the art of keeping dogs is only just beginning, and has long been known and practised in England and even in Canada. Mr. Senn is from Canada. Dogs, he says, are afflicted with distemper, and catch it from one another as human beings catch small pox. The ailments of a dog are not classified, but are grouped under the general head of distemper. If he takes a violent cold, which he is only supposed to do when his system is out of order, there is a copious running at his eyes and nostrils, and that is distemper. If a dog is long haired, and the fleas get at him so as to produce sores, that also is a distemper. Where dogs are many, distemper of one sort or another is common; and it is to guard against the predisposition of the dog's blood to be bad that vaccination is undertaken. At the last dog show held in this city, Mr. Senn says, the advice was given to the owners of dogs by an old fancier to vaccinate. The operation is performed in the same way as vaccination for small pox. If a dog becomes very sick under it, that is considered a good sign, and to the operator is a proof that the animal had the seeds of distemper in his blood, and was in need of the operation.

Mr. Senn has yet vaccinated only the puppies of his own stock, but he expects vaccine matter from Canada every day, and advertises to treat any animals that are brought to him. The place which he selects for vaccination is inside the ear, well down toward the root. Formerly the shoulder was chosen, but the ear was found to be a better place, both for the success of the operation and for the concealment of the scar. After a dog is vaccinated, Mr. Senn says, he is sure to keep in good condition, and his blood is secure against the contraction of distemper of any sort. Although the result of the operation is generally severe, and the animal becomes very sick, the fancier says that he has not heard of a fatal case.

Concerning the frequent poisonous effects of a dog's bite Mr. Senn says that people ought to beware of a dog with a bad mouth. A dog got of an old pair, he says, is apt to have a cankered mouth. His teeth are loose in the gums, so that they may be moved all about; and they are generally, also, what are called "shell teeth," with the enamel worn off, that is, so that they are collect tarter, which is always poisonous. The bite of a dog with clean white teeth amounts to nothing and heals speedily, whereas the bite from a dog with shell teeth which are covered with tarter swells up and makes a frightful sore.—Ex.

The National Republican says:

The flippancy with which the Raleigh (N. C.) Observer answers our inquiry; what has become of the Republican party in the South which rallied for General Grant in 1872? by telling us it has "gone where the woodbine twineth," pays a poor compliment to its candor. The bull-dozers, the rifle-clubs, the murderous Butlers and the usurping Hamptons and Nicholls could give a much more manly and truthful answer than that furnished by the Observer. Manhood is not very expensive; buy some of it.—

THE WILMINGTON POST,

WILMINGTON, N. C.,

SUNDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1878.

When Dom Pedro was making his tour of observation in America, he made a note of the fact that Dr. Harter's Fever and Ague Specific was, under all conditions, a safe and certain cure for Chills and Fever. For sale by all druggist. (2t.)

It is a principle in hygienics that a torpid liver is a cause of fatal derangements of the physical organism, The blood, the bone, the muscles, the nerves all sympathize with this more prominent organ. Failure to obey its functions in the one is rebellion in every remote tissue. As a consequence, disease follows the slightest apathy or refusal of the liver to perform its part. Abnormal condition here for any length of time is death. To induce a normal state, no medicine is more positively adapted than Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator. This is not advertisement, but fact. We have used the Doctor's valuable medicine in our family for twenty years. We know him to be a physician of over thirty years' continuous practice, and that he has used the medicine in that practice. If the thousands of poor, miserable, sallow looking, dyspeptic victims we meet every day would use Dr. Sanford's Liver Invigorator, they would recover health. What more can be said?—The Working Church, New York.

Science has accomplished no more wonderful or gratifying result than the perfection of an antidote to the chilling signs of approaching age, something to obliterate the tell-tale tracks of time, and preserve the natural adornments of youth to ripe old age. Hall's Hair Renewer does all this, and its praise resounds in cottage and palace. The dwellers among the snows of Norway and the peasants of sunny France and Spain, find use for it, and find means to get it, and it does not disappoint them. The whitening locks again resume their youthful colo, the thin, dry, and faded hair becomes bright and glossy. The whole appearance is changed as if by magic, and the man or woman, who, before was called aged, now appears as one in the prime of life. Such wonderous changes cannot pass unnoticed, and they have produced the unprecedented demand that now exists for the first and only article ever compounded that can produce them in a pleasing and satisfactory manuer.—New Era, Woodstock, Ill. (3t)

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable, unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you,—your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. Three doses will relieve you.

Worth Reading Twice.

Says a young husband, whose business speculations were unsuccessful: "My wife's silver tea-set, the bridal gift of a rich uncle, doomed me to financial ruin. It involved a hundred unexpected expenses, which, trying to meet, made me the bankrupt that I am." His is the experience of many others less wise, who do not know what is the goblin in the house working destruction. A sagacious father, of great wealth, exceedingly mortified his daughter by ordering to be printed on her wedding cards: "No presents except those adapted to an income of $1,000." Said he: "You must not expect to begin life in the style I am able by many years of labor to indulge, and I know of nothing that will tempt you more than the well intended but pernicious gifts of rich friends."

Dennis Kearney threatened to take off his shirt while speaking at Newark, but restrained himself because of the "mock modesty of this modern civilization." Our suspicions are confirmed. Kearney belongs to several centuries ago.

People are getting acquainted—and those who are not ought to be—with the wonderful merits of that great American Remedy, the

MEXICAN

Mustang Liniment,

FOR MAN AND BEAST.

This liniment very naturally originated in a mexican, where Nature provides in her laboratory many surprising antidotes for the maladies of her children. Its fame has been spreading for years, until now it encircles the habitable globe.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is a specific remedy for all external ailments of man and beast.

To stock owners and farmers it is invaluable. A single bottle often saves a human life, and restores the usefulness of an unbroken horse, ox, cow, or sheep.

It cures foot-rot, hoof-ail, hollow horn, quitter, screw-worm, shoulder-rot, mange, the bites and stings of poisonous reptiles and insects, and every such drawback to stock breeding and husbandry.

It cures every external trouble of horses, such as lameness, scratches, swinny, sprains, founder, wind-gall, ring-bone, etc., etc.

The Mexican Mustang Liniment is the quickest cure in the world for accidents occurring in the family, in the absence of a physician, such as burns, scalds, sprains, cuts, etc., and for rheumatism, and stiffness engendered by exposure, particularly valuable to Miners.

It is the cheapest remedy in the world, for it penetrates the muscle to the bone, hence a slight application is generally sufficient to cure.

Mexican Mustang Liniment is put up in three sizes of bottles, the larger ones being proportionately much the cheapest. Sold everywhere.

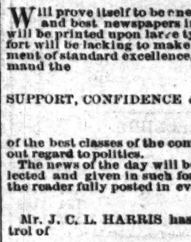
Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.



A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Boston Transcript: David was of short stature. Hence his remark: "I said in my haste, tall men are liars."

Paper collars may be going out, but we observe that a good many men continue to go out with them.

The only religious feature noticeable in Kearney's lecture is when he says "we will now take up a collection."

REASONS WHY

PERRY DAVIS'

PAIN-KILLER

IS THE

Best Family Medicine of the A e

And why it should be kept always near at hand:

1st. PAIN-KILLER is the most certain Cholera cure that medical science has produced.

2nd. PAIN-KILLER, as a Diarrœa and Dysentery remedy, seldom if ever fails.

3rd. PAIN-KILLER will cure Cramps or Pains in any part of the system. A single dose usually affects a cure.

4th. PAIN-KILLER will cure dyspepsia and Indigestion, if used according to directions.

5th. PAIN-KILLER is an almost never-failing cure for Sudden Colds, Coughs, &c.

6th. PAIN-KILLER has proved a Sovereign Remedy for Fever and Ague, and Chill Fever; it has cured the most obstinate cases.

7th. PAIN-KILLER as a liniament is unequaled for Frost Bites, Chilblains, Burns, Bruises, Cuts, Sprains, &c.

8th. PAIN-KILLER has cured cases of Rheumatism and Neuralgia after years standing.

9th. PAIN-KILLER will destroy Boils, Felons, Whitlows Old Sores, giving relief from pain after the first application.

10th. PAIN-KILLER cures Headache, and Toothache.

11th. PAIN-KILLER will save you days of sickness and many a dollar in time and Doctor's bills.

12th. PAIN-KILLER has been before the public over thirty-seven years and is a purely Vegetable preparation, safe to keep and use in every family. The simplicity attending its use, together with the great variety of diseases that may be entirely eradicated by it, and the great amount of pain and suffering that can be alleviated through its use, make it imperative upon every person to supply themselves with this valuable remedy, and to keep it always near at hand.

The PAIN-KILLER is now known and appreciated in every quarter of the Globe. Physicians recommend it in their practice, while all classes of society have found in it relief and comfort. Give it a trial.

Be sure and buy the genuine. Every Druggist, and nearly every Country Grocer throughout the land keep it for sale.

Liver is King.

The Liver is the imperial organ of the whole human system, as it controls the life, health and happiness of man. When it is disturbed in its proper action, all kinds of ailments are the natural result. The digestion of food, the movements of the heart and blood, the action of the brain and nervous system, are all immediately connected with the workings of the Liver. It has been successfully proved that Green's August Flower is unequalled in curing all persons afflicted with Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint, and the numerous symptoms that result from an unhealthy condition of the Liver and Stomach. Sample bottles to try, 10 cents. Positively sold in all towns on the western continent. Three doses will prove that it is just what you want.

NOTICE.

SCHEDULE B TAX.

ALL wholesale and retail merchants are hereby notified that a privilege tax was levied by the Legislature of 1876-77, of Five Dollars, (the same levied by county,) in addition to the Schedule taxes proper. Wholesale dealers are also notified that in giving in their purchases the law now compels payment on all purchases, made within the State as well as out of the State, (including timber, lumber, turpentine, spirits turpentine, rosin and naval stores of any kind and cotton.) All hotels, boarding houses, restaurants and eating houses are required by law to pay a tax of one-half per cent on the gross receipts. The tax will be due July 1 and payable within the first ten days thereafter, on all purchases since the 1st of January, 1878.

All parties interested in the payment of Schedule B Taxes will save cost by attending to the same at once, as the law will be strictly enforced. Owing to the very small amount collected on the above Schedule for the past several years, and the numerous criticisms upon the returns given in by parties in business, I am prompted to request that you be careful in making up a correct an positive returns, thereby relieving me of the unpleasant duty enjoined upon me of looking over your books and invoices. In this connection it is especially and particularly enjoined upon you that all purchases made by you from, through or by brokers must be included by you in your returns.

Ayer's Cathartic Pills,

For all the purposes of a Family Physic: and for sugar Coated Pills, Jaundice, Indigestion, Foul Stomach, Breath, Headache, Erysipelas, Rheumatism, Eruptions and Skin Diseases, Biliousness, Dropsy, Tumors, Worms, Neuralgia; as a Dinner Pill, for purifying the Blood,

Are the most effective and congenial purgative ever discovered. They are mild, but effectual in their operation, moving the bowels surely and without pain. Although gentle in their operation, they are still the most thorough and searching cathartic medicine that can be employed: cleansing the stomach and bowels, and even the blood. In small doses of one pill a day, they stimulate the digestive organs and promote vigorous health.

AYER'S PILLS have been known for more than a quarter of a century, and have obtained a world-wide reputation for their virtues. They correct diseased action in the several assimilative organs of the body, and are so composed that obstructions within their range can rarely withstand or evade them. Not only do they cure the every-day complaints of everybody, but also formidable and dangerous diseases that have baffled the best of human skill. While they produce powerful effects, they are, at the same time, the safest and best physic for children. By their aperient action they gripe much less than the common purgatives, and never give pain when the bowels are not inflamed. They reach the vital fountains of the blood, and strengthen the system by freeing it from the elements of weakness.

Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates, containing neither calomel nor any deleterious drug, these Pills may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar-coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take; while being purely vegetable, no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

HARPER'S BAZAR.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.—The Bazar is the organ of the fashionable world, and the expounder of that world's laws, and is the authority in all matters of manners, etiquette, costume, and social habits.—Boston Transcript.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its paterns for the children's clotes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords, and has become an established authority with the ladies of America.—New York Evening Post.
